

WADA Contamination Rule Clear

- “The concentration of free testosterone and/or epitestosterone in the specimen is not to exceed 5% of the respective glucuroconjugates.”

--WADA Technical Document TD2004EAAS

WADA rules are that if contamination or degradation levels of free testosterone or epitestosterone exceed 5%, the sample should not be analyzed.